

EVENTS AT ANIMAL HEALTH AUSTRALIA

VISION STATEMENT

An information, policy and networking hub for biosecurity, animal health and training that adds real value to our Members and to AHA's business and services.

OVERVIEW

Animal Health Australia (AHA) headquarters re-located to 95 Northbourne Avenue, Turner ACT in 2015. AHA staff occupy level two, and level three (floor space 220m²) accommodates a suite of conference and meeting room facilities.

AHA has specialist skills in events management to ensure the level three facilities are used to their full potential in terms of staff and AHA usage, realising additional benefits to Members and revenue raising.

This modern suite of rooms – centrally located near restaurants and accommodation as well as the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources – are now available for use by all AHA Members.

ROOM CONFIGURATIONS

Level three provides highly flexible conference and meeting facilities, with the additional benefit of extensive entertaining and networking options.

All rooms are equipped with state-of-the-art audio visual equipment.

Rooms available for hire include:

- Conference room 1
- Conference room 2
- Boardroom
- Meeting room
- Breakout/trade space
- Kitchen
- Outdoor space
